INTRODUCTION

This work was started in a search for the parents of my own great grandmother, Betsy Tabor. In the books of the Town Clerk of Rochester, Massachusetts appears "int. of marriage of Miss Betsy Tabor of Fairhaven" and "Daniel Allen of Long Plain, Jan. 10, 1814". On her tombstone in North Collins, Erie Co., N.Y. is Nov. 30, 1840 ae 51 years, 1 month, 22 days. A discrepancy rests in a statement by their first child Louisa Allen to Dora Allen Welch, "remember that mother Betsy died in her 40's". (I have so far interpreted this as "the 40's"). We have accumulated so much data that we wish to make it available to others.

Amongst the sources searched were Vital Records of Rhode Id. (Arnold"; the many volumes of Mass.; of Vermont as found at Montpelier and Town Histories. Census reports have proved invaluable from the List of Freeman in Rhode Id. in 1747 onward. We have searched wills and land records throughout Rhode Id. and all likely counties of Mass. and Conn. In New York State, we have visited each county seat for probates and land records, and furthermore, have data from many town clerks of New Hampshire from Concord and Town Hist.

Revolutionary Records are helpful as found in many state volumes as well as in the Archives Bldg. in Washington.

As is the case with my Betsy, doubtless others have escaped us. We have data from many old cemeteries. Records from southern and western states are such as we could find or have been sent to us and are cursory and scattered. We have included whatever we could fit in from Genealogies of Related Families. Doubtless we have made mistakes as some relationships had to be based on presumptive evidence but we have striven to document the accounts we present. We have frequently thought of the confusion of numerous Philip, Thomas, Joseph, John, Gideon, Benjamin, Pardon or Peleg Tabors as a battle almost incapable of conquest, but an earnest effort has been made to separate them.

The spelling in these many deed varies for many an individual. The name Amon appears as both Amos and Amon in one deed on Long Island. Philip, Phillip, Tabor, Taber may occur in one deed; but Tabor was commonly used in Rhode Id., Taber in New Bedford. The Tabers of New Bedford were predominately Friends, those of Rhode Id. commonly Baptists and Congregationalists, and we regret that their available records are less complete than those of the Quakers.

We wish we could put into the accounts, a breath of the pleasure it was to unexpectedly come upon the will of John naming his "19 well-loved children" in Tiverton, Rhode Id. We trust that some one of you will some day come upon the parentage of those we must here leave unattached.

The stories of the first four generations will comprise Part I.

The daughters are usually given letters A B C, etc. and the discussion of their families follows immediately the family discussion of their parents. Lydia[2] Tillinghast is given a number because the discussion of her family is so extensively given. A few exceptions will be found thus: Deborah[5] of Phillip[4] is numbered 116-A because her sons were Tabers and will be sought as such.

In the census reports the symbol ♂ signifies males and ♀ females.

CONFUSING NAMES.

In our Vol. I we asserted that earlier the New Bedford Thomas 2 lines(Mainly Quakers) chose Taber while the Joseph 2 and Philip 2 lines of R. I. largely preferred Tabor (Mainly non-Quakers). In written deeds, town records, church material, probates, names like Baber, Faber, Gabor; Haber; Nabor, Saber, Lebor, Rabor, Tabor, Yaber, Tator, Tater, Tabble, Tabler, Taban, confused us. In census reports citations like this example occurred, e.g. "Scituate R.I. 1870 Taker, Arthur 22 b. Scotland". Or entries such as Tabado, Tabrelli, Tabel, Tabis, Taberner, Taborer, Traber, Taberisky, Taberman, Taberuvsky, entered. In compiling a list of Taber or Tabor authors confusing names were, Taberd, Tabern, Tabernal, Tabusky, Tabore, Taboreau, Taborda, Tabords, Taborga, Tabori, Taborisky, Taboroff, Tabourier, Tabourin, Tabourot, Tapor.
Taber, a Christian name. We previously gave six instances and alluded to six or eight more such Christining: e.g. Taber Baldwin, Taber Knox, Taber Morton, Taber Nichols, Tabor Pelton, Tabor Sherman, Tabour Tobey.

Additions to Part I

p. 5 4. C. Lydia ^{3} (^{2}Philip ^{1}Philip) Tabor m. Joseph Mosher.

They had son Philip born 20 Dec. 1697, from a descendant of whom we had a letter Sept. 17, 1953 - namely R. E. Dale 3418 S St. Lincoln, Neb. He gives: " Lydia Taber m. Joseph Mosher Their son Philip (No. 2) m. --- Tripp; their son Benjamin m. Phebe Brownell and removed to Dutchess Co. N.Y. before the Revolution; Benjamin's dau. Phebe m. David Haight a family that came to New York while it was still New Netherlands. That was my mother's family name. My Haight, Mosher, Tabor and Tripp lines were all published in the Nebraska and Midwest Genealogical Record several years ago. Two first cousins of my mother living near David City Neb. Alta Haight and Rachel Haight married two Taber brothers who came from Kentucky, Leonard and George Taber. - - - There were several children. George and Rachel moved away from there 40 years ago."

We note that Richard Hart Jr. married as 2d wife Abigail Tabor of Tiverton, R.I.

^{3}John of Tiverton was sealer of weights and measures, 1723, 1723/24, 1728/29, 1732, 1747, 1748; Constable 1729/30; grand jury 1723/24; surveyor boards and lumber plank 1727; selectman 1729/30.

John Tabor and John Tabor Jr. Freemen of Tiverton 1747. Eliminate last paragraph p. 9. Was John Jr. eldest son of Joh 3? Did he die before his father's will 1756? The so called John of Scituate was a Tayler not Tabor.

As early as or before 1717 Joseph ^{2} sells land to his son John ^{3}. We do not believe Joh a land owner in 1717 or before, a bachelor when John's younger brother Ebenezer had children by 1716. We therefore believe that the list of freemen of 1747 of Tiverton, John Tabor and John Tabor Jr. must be John 3 (Joseph, Philip) Tabor and John 4 (John 3 Joseph Philip -- that is, John 3 first son. Besides the nineteen why not first born, a John after the father? The John 4 (Joseph Thomas Philip) of Little Compton was not born until 1715 nor married until 1741, therefore not the John Jr. but sometimes called John 2nd. He married Mary Taber of Tiverton Oct. 10, 1741 and his John b. Aug. 4, 1764 cannot be the John Jr. of Tiverton 1747. We believe John Jr. 1747 to be the son of John (Joseph Philip 1) Tabor.

p. 27 12 a Joseph (4) (Philip $^{3}_{1}$, Joseph, Philip) b. 1711-1721 d. 1761 (will) m. Abigail Havens, dau. of Thomas.

Joseph (4) (Philip, Joseph, Philip) must be inserted as of Vol. I after Pardon (4) p. 23. The parentage of Robert, Pardon of Berne, Havens, Joseph with wife Deborah, Benjamin with wife Mercy, and William with wife Lucinda Moul have caused us great confusion. Their births were 1752-1761. In 1953, we found Joseph Taber in North Kingston Probates (9:129) Jan. 16, 1761, which may untangle many puzzles. Although Joseph died intestate leaving wife and children unnamed, another probate (9:501) designates merely widow of said Taber. Administration given to Alexander Huitland (Huling) Jr. The will in 1761 of Thomas Havens of North Kingston (9:204) leav es money to daughter Abigail Taber. Here at last is a likely source for the name Havens Tabor, a Revolutionary soldier. Joseph Taber is the only Taber in North Kingston records of this period (1760). In 1954, we consulted the Town Council Minutes of N. Kingston and therein discovered (Vol. 9:492) the following: "was presented to the Town Council as aforesaid - - - the personal estate of Joseph Taber what ... according to law was rec'd by the Town Council aforesaid and that the clerke give the Sargent a sittation to bring ... Abigail Taber in order to give her ... caring for her late Husband's estate." Thomas Havens of N. Kingstown had besides Abigail sons William, Robert and Thomas to whom he gave farms 1738-1748, and no doubt about that period he gave to Abigail as his will of 1761 indicates. Rhoads, James and Mary are also named in will (9:204). Earlier than the will, a Joseph Taber is one of a long list of dissenting petitioners of the Stonington District (Conn. Ecclesiastical Papers found in the State Library in Hartford, Conn. 10: 29c - 1748). With him were Gideon Chapman, Samuel, Nathaniel and Daniel Rogers. Was Gideon brother-in-law?

Joseph b. 1711-1721 d. 1761 m. abt. 1738 Abigail Havens dau. of Thomas Havens who d. 1761. She m (2) as 2d wife in 1768 Ichabod Shearman son of Peleg and moved to eastern New York State and was near Ichabod's son Peleg.

We place Joseph as son of Philip (3) of Connecticut, notwithstanding the following observation in the Parkhurst manuscript. "We therefore finally conclude by saying that the reasonable supposition is that Philip (3) Taber of New London is the son of Joseph (2) Taber son of Philip (1) Taber ... . It is to be noted however that Philip (3) names no son Joseph as far as known." The fact that Joseph (4) is not mentioned in Philip's will does not preclude the possibility of Philip as his father because the son Philip (4) who died 1746 is not named nor is Job who died in 1734-35 nor Job's possible heirs such as Thomas. Philip made a will as of 1735 and also one of 1750.

Other possibilities of parentage of Joseph should be considered:

Amon[3], Joseph (2) b. 1706 m. Mary Brown b. 1709 could have had Joseph (4) named after his father but no record of Amon's children appears previous to his Long Island children b. 1740-1747.

Strangely enough, Peleg Shearman son of Ichabod testified as to the Revolutionary service of William Taber, Peleg stating he had known him since 1778. Though credited to Rhode Island, Havens, Benjamin and William served with Albany Co. N.Y. Revolutionary troops.

Because of Abigail's brothers and husband's names, we think the following a likely list of her children of 5th. generation

* 42A i Robert
* 42B ii Son
* 42C iii Pardon b. 1750-51 of Berne, Albany Co.
* 42D iv Havens b. 1752 d. 1822, July 18.

* 42E vi Joseph b. before 1755 (see 1800 census
* 42F vii Benjamin b. 1758-59

Pardon Tillinghast Tabor went to Fayetteville n.y. and died in New Brunswick (Allen papers). We have been unable to verify either statement and wonder if the reference could be to Fayette, La. or Lafayette R.D. near which the majority of the Tillinghast family lived, and near which his uncle Joseph (4) and wife Abigail lived. The New Brunswick might refer to that town in n.j.

This Pardon could have come from Jeremiah (4) but he is not named in his will in 1805 Since he had been call him Pardon of Bern and now consider him a son of Joseph (4) and Abigail (Havens) Taber, and a cousin of Gideon of nearby Knox, N.Y. Abigail had moved to Rensselaer

69 Benjamin (5)(David) contin.

We are quite sure it is this Samuel in Jackson twsp Tioga Co. in 1840 Before we found the census data a descendant of Samuel (5) thru Frederick and Loam and Frederick namely Caleman (9) Taber of Mecklenburg N.Y. said "we always understood we were related to the Newfield and Hector Tabers" because of a legend he remembered. The story was told that one of their family when leaving for Pennsylvania stopped at "Puppy's nest" (Cayutaville, then in Newfield) and exchanged his jacket for that of a relative. In Newfield Samuel was doubtless somewhere in the neighborhood of Cayutaville or Rumsey's Corners (Trumbell's corners)

Madison Co. by John E. Smith 1890

"In 1794 a considerable colony came on from R.I. and located in the S.W. quarter of the town. This entire quarter except 2 lots which had been sold to Wm and David Blair---and also 2 lots in the S.E. quarter had been purchased in 1792 by agents of the Rhode Islanders, and became known as the R.I. quarter. Among those colonists were the Simmons families, 2 or 3 Peckham families who had numerous descendants, some of whom still live in the town, Samuel Brownell, Joseph Manchester and Samud Coe; These were all from L.I. and an adjoining town, but all did not arrive in that year."

Noel Taber homestead

Under Noel Taber (4) we doubtless should have made allusion to "Noel Taber Road", whether it received its name from Noel Sr. or Noel Jr. we know not. It is portrayed in F.W. Beers atlas (1871, 44,45) of Bristol Co in New Bedford township from Carmonsdale at the South in 3d ward of N. B. City, north to Hathaway road. It is between Oak Grove Cemetery and North Dartmouth. In 1871, at its S. end appears "R. Taber", in its middle "G. Taber" then "J. N. Sadler" Then" Mrs. Taber"; In Everts + Richard's Atlas (1895) the area is called Rockdale and the road "Rockdale Ave." In its middle appears "G. B. Tabor" separated by one house from J. Sadler

New Bedford Sunday Standard, Sept 15, 1929 (copy owned by Mrs. Charles Crosby) Old Homestead is Transferred (picture of old Taber Homestead.) Taber House on Rockdale ave, bought by W. O. Buzzell. Property kept in Family 106 yrs, without new Deed. The purchase by Wm O. Buzzell from Susan A and Adeline S. Crosby of 236; 48 rods of land and the old Taber homestead on W. side of Rockdale Ave, marks the passing of this property from the Taber family for the first time since this parcel, once part of a much larger tract was acquired by Noel Taber in 1819. No deed of this particular parcel acquired by Mr. Buzzell has been given since 1819. It was from Noel Taber that what is now Rockdale Ave. first took its name Noel Taber Rd, so designated from the fact that Noel Taber was the owner of the most extensive tract of land bordering on this road,

Name changed

This Noel Taber who acquired a large tract of land on the west side of what is now Rockdale ave, by 2 deeds recorded 1819 was later known as Noel Taber 2d. He died in 1839 leaving a will in which there were a number of specific bequests ---

77 Noel Tab. homestead Contin, after which he bequeathed the residue in his estate to his 6 children in equal shares. One of these six children was Wm Mosher Taber, but from the records it appears that soon after his father's death William Mosher Taber became Noel W. Taber and under the latter name continued to be known for the rest of his life. --- In 1840 the Probate Court set off parts to the beneficiaries --- In 1894 the widow's dower having reverted was partitioned 4/6 int to Pardon Russel Sr. 3/10 to Noel W. Taber 1/10 to Geo B. Taber, 2/10 to John G Taber, Cornelius Taber and Clara C Barden. ---
The tract acquired By Mr. Buzzell includes 236.48 rods of land, frontage on Rockdale Ave. 221 feet. --- At the N.W. the line skirts a private cem. in which members of the Taber family are buried --- In the deed by which the Crosbys convey the property to Mr. Buzzell, the latter grants an easement permitting them and their survivors --- access to the cemetery.

The Sherman family from whom Noel Taber acquired the tract in 1894 have moved some bodies from the cemetery.

106 Thomas (5)

We cannot resist giving here: "The Will of Thomas Taber
A Ballad of Quaker Hill
By Berton Braley"
Miss Martha Taber (1857-1941) wrote me that this is almost word for word like the will of her ancestor.
It appeared in The Saturday Evening Post, July 15, 1939 p. 28

The Ballad

"Atkins and Ferruses, Shoves and Tabers,
Hoags and Irishes, Moores and Wings,
Two hundred years ago were neighbors,
And though time elsewhere may alter things
And old-time families move or die,
And landmarks vanish; on Quaker Hill --
Though time, as elsewhere, goes flashing by --
The family trees are sturdy still.
And Atkins, Ferruses, Shoves and Tabers
Have Wings and Irishes as their neighbors;
With native lineage still intact
And the same names holding the well-kept lands
In what is known as the Oblong Tract
Where the Quaker meetinghouse still stands.

The Monthly Meeting is held no more,
And seldom heard is the Quaker "thee";
And cars of motorists hum and roar
Where pack and saddle trails used to be,
But the Friends' tradition of Brotherly Love,
Of peace and kindness and calm good will,
Remains the dominant spirit of
The modern neighbors of Quaker Hill.

So much for background; and now, our tale
(Not truly a story, but what we style
'Americana') the which we trail
In the leaves of the Taber family file;
A testament made in a bygone time,
Rephrased a little to fit with rhyme:

I, Thomas Taber, of Quaker Hill,
Being of memory sound and mind,
Do make, as follows, my final will
Properly witnessed, sealed and signed

Item: To Annie, beloved wife,
My faithful helpmeet and stay through life,
Two feather beds for to keep her warm
And snug at night in the winter's storm,
And two stout bedsteads furnished with cords
The very best that my means affords.

That she may fare as my relict should,
Each year I will her from my estate
Of fine, fresh pork that is rich and good,
And of fine beef also, six hundredweight,
And the fat of such meat, and of salt so much
As shall be needed for curing such.

And, that her larder may be complete,
Full thirty bushels of maize and wheat
And two of turnips, and bushels four
Of good potatoes, and furthermore
Of cheese, two hundredweight every year;
Of butter, eighty; ten fowls for baking,
Two prime fat turkeys, and for good cheer
Apples aplenty for cider making,

And sugar made from the maples juice
my sons shall bring her
for household use;
And honey also, and therewith way
And forty weight of both wool and flax
I specify that she shall receive
For yarn to spin and for cloth to weave.

And there shall be fenced a garden plot
Wherever she wishes to choose the spot,
And it shall be spaded and weeded, fit
For what she wishes to plant in it.

My sons shall give her a horse to ride
And keep it curried with coat like silk,
For travel over the countryside,
And a cow to keep her supplied with milk,
And there shall always be ample store
Of cordwood piled at her kitchen door.

For her private use the new south-wing
Shall be set aside, with its furnishing,
And I charge my sons in this testament
That they do all things for my wife's content.

Item: My stables and stock and lands
As marked and meted on Quaker Hill,
I give to the faithful and able hands
Of two sons, Jeremiah and Will;
My son Nathaniel, shall receive

One pound; a suit of plain, fine weave,
And nothing more, having had his due
By just arrangements made hitherto.

Item: To each of my daughters, Ruth,
Amy, Antheracy, Saloma, mary.
I will the following, which, in truth,
Are chattels seemly and necessary
That they may faithfully live the lives
Of prudent spinsters or worthy wives.

Two bedsteads, corded, two feather beds,
Two bolsters each for to rest their heads,
A warming pan and six linen sheets,
Six carsey blankets, one iron kettle,
Six fiddlebacks and six common seats,
A case of drawers, a maple settle,
Two oval tables, one pot of brass,
To hold four pails full; one looking glass
Of fifty shillings, no more, no less,
One cedar box and one clothing press,
One great, one foot wheel, two pails, one churn,
One copper teapot, one china urn.

Of knives and forks and earthenware
To each of my daughters her equal share
Ovens and pots for their hearthside tasks
And china and pewter sufficient for
A proper table, and kegs and casks
For cider and vinegar they shall store,
And for each daughter, my sons shall keep
Two good milch cows and a dozen sheep,

Item: That Jethro, my negro, be upon my passing, forthwith set free.

This is my testament, made and planned
With the best of wisdom God gave to me
To all of which I have set my hand,
Witnessed and sealed as the laws decree,
This fourth of September, year of our Lord
Seventeen hundred and eighty-three

Such is the eighteenth-century will of Thomas Taber, of Quaker Hill,
With its most particular and decided
Itemized care in the gifts provided,
But between the lines there is more to read
Of a just soul true to a gentle creed,
Ahead of his time by a century
In setting his negro chattel free;
Of a loving father who did his best
For thoughtful justice in each bequest,
But most of a husband, a tender spouse
Who carried the spirit of marriage vows
Beyond death's parting, whose final thought
Was that his helpmeet should have content
And peace and comfort -- and this is wrought
Through the warp and woof of his testament."

Thanks to Burton Bradley and the Saturday Evening Post for this unique and pertinent ballad. Anna Allen Wright
The last two verses of the poem have been omitted.

Thomas and Anthrase are buried in the cemetery on William Taber's farm 2 ½ miles north of Quaker Hill. Anthrase is given there as Anne Therase,

They moved from Dartmouth Mass. to Dutchess Co. N.Y. to Quaker Hill about 1760. Thomas had one of the first grants in Oblong Valley in Dutchess Co. made by Geo. III in 1760 conveying 500 acres to Thomas Taber.

Deeds: The first transactions are when Constant Sisson and wife Elizabeth sell to Gardner and Susanna Tabor July 7, 1784 in B[illegible]. 63:41,42 Then Gardner and Susanna sell the same to Wm Davis and Constant Sisson. On 7mch 9 – Sept. 14, 1784 (63:509) Gardner is grantee from Jonathan Tabor of Dartmouth to land in Dartmouth and Tiverton near Peaked Rock

Gardner sells this land, 50 acres, "northern most part of my homestead. Before the death of his father Jonathan (1792) and his brothers Daniel (1794) and Jonathan (1796) we find him in Schaticoke N.Y. in 1790 censuses.

On may 4, 1796 (Rens. Co. N.Y. 2:70) Gardner sells his land E. side of Hudson R. in Schaticoke being N.W. corner of Co.

From the Town Book of Providence N.Y, we find him in 1796 Overseer of highway with his son Benjamin. In 1798, Apr. 3 his son Jonathan is also overseer there. Also in 1799

By 1800-1811 his brother Eseck came to Van Buren (set off from Camillus. On 1810 Gardner is in Camillus N.Y. On Eseck's will, he mentions land adjoining Gardner's land.

We have no record of date of his depature to Perry, N.Y.

Revolutionary service. He is listed as Revolutionary soldier by Livingston Co., receives a flag on his grave each year. We believe he is so "dubbed" on his tombstone. His descendants have always regarded him such. The D.A.R. do not recognize it, and we at R.I., Boston, and National Archives have sought the evidence without success. Every one of his brothers served but no official data for Gardner has appeared.

Randall considered John of Easton as R-255a as possible son of Joseph and Elisabeth (Delano) Taber of Fairhaven.
I am placing him as John (5) son of John (4) and Mary (Record) Taber, The Reynolds, Teffts, Sheldons tied up with the Records and Tabors of Kingston section of R.I. came into Washington and Saratoga Cos. early. Teffts and Sheldons in Easton early. Elisha Reynolds and Hannah Tabor of Record Tabor were in Saratoga Co. for a while - then Berlin Vt, The Biography and History of Washington Co. and Queensbury 1894 gives "John Taber (great-grandfather of Charles Russell Taber), "the founder of the Taber family in Washington Co. came from R.I. to town of Easton prior to the Revolution. He was a carpenter by trade, and owned a small farm in the town. He was father of six children." Annual of Reynolds Fam. Association 1925 remarks: "The Rhode Islanders flocked into N.Y. state during the 10 years preceding the Revolution, settling mostly in present Cos. of Rensselaer and Washington E. of Hudson River."

Interpretation of Census Records. For each county of N.Y. state (except Greater N.Y.) and for most counties of New England, we have seen the census reports 1790 – 1860. When we credit unnamed sons and daughters to a family, we realize they may be servants or relatives, e.g. 46 Gideon Chapman Tabor quite likely had his two unmarried brothers with him or 113 Enoch Tabor as custodian for families of his father and brothers may well have maintained the old home for his mother and others and his own home in New York State. This may explain the two Enochs in two different states.

French's Gazeteer tells us the first gristmill in Lisle was built by Jacob Hill in 1800. Pardon was in Lisle in 1811. The Hills were there in 1798, were born in Mass. A present day descendant told us the Hills and Pardon Tabor came from the same place. Were Isaac and Peace Tabor just over the Tiverton line in Fall River or Westport when Pardon was born? We place Pardon Gray Tabor here as a son of Isaac with considerable trepidation. We have searched for Isaac's 2 sons indicated in the census: 1 born 1784-1790, another 1800-1810. Pardon and Sarah had a son Isaac but this is not conclusive proof because Sarah had bro. Isaac. The fact that Isaac served under Lieut-Col. Pardon Gray in the Revolution may have led to the choice of name.

Basis for conclusions and allocations

We have canvassed every scrap of genealogical literature available, but this work is primarily from original State Archives and State Libraries from Concord and Montpelier To Harrisburg, plus land deeds, mortgage, miscellaneous and probate records of every county of New York state except greater New York, and most counties of New England (except Maine). If a state be on the town basis like R.I. we have visited each town hall. We have sought in National Archives, many North Carolina, Virginia and western census records and have received considerable material from friends such as mrs. Grace Sodder of Washington, D.C. Each family account therefore is an official one, supplemented by the customary correspondence each genealogist employs. It is largely original material seen in the locality treated. From State and National Archives, we have searched military records. At National Archives, we have had many sessions on census 1790 - 1880. Almost every county state census of N.Y. from 1825 - 1905 (now extant) we have seen. Some presumptions are made and usually the circumstantial connections are indicated,

The accounts of the 7th generation begin with the children of John No. 136 - The first one is ~~Wooster~~ Aldin No. 400

End of Seventh generation

Recent generations

See Key Sheet p. 311 for men followed in 8th & 9th generations.

8th generation numbers range 868a — 1173

9th generation numbers from 1174 - 1339

Omissions become more numerous and gaps greater as this history approaches the present. Only 51 individuals are given numbers in the 10th generation, only 14 in the 11th and 6 in the 12th.

We are glad when we have been able to carry a line to the near present; and so supply a name and address that can be reached in starting further investigations.

Many daughters lines are carried on to 10 - 12 generations and they may be sought under numbers of father or grandfather Taber; although names of married partners are also given in the index.

b. 1827

Census 1850 Essex Co. Moriah. Pierce Taber 23; Jane 27; Mary 1; Darius Ferris 50, carpenter b. Vt. Francis Edgarton 17 b. N.Y.

Note the Darius Ferris, George Pierce Taber's aunt Hannah m. Edmund Ferris and his aunt Ruth m. Warren Ferris, both husbands being sons of Reed Ferris and Ann Tripp, no wills are reported at Ticonderoga for either Pierce Taber or Darius Ferris. There are however 3 or 4 land deeds at Elizabethtown, Essex Co. for Darius Ferris. One gives his address as Cortlandtown, Westchester Co. which is N.W. corner of the county and not far from Pawling, Dutchess Co. Thereafter he was of Westport, Essex Co. N.Y. The Cortlandtown address is very suggestive. If Jane, wife of Pierce Taber were his daughter, they might well have met and been married there and then moved to Essex Co. Darius by census of 1850 was b. in Vt. By the Hemenway Vt. Gazetteer Vol 1. pp. 81-82, Peter Ferris b. 1722 Dutchess Co. d. Panton Vt. 1815 ae 93., came to Panton ca 1773 with wife and 2 sons. James & Squire Darius b ca 1773 in Pandon Vt. Darius of 1850 census in Essex Co. may well son of the above Darius of Panton with a period of time resident of Cortlandtown, Westchester Co.

Taber Genealogy, Descendants of Thomas, Son of Philip Taber, Compiled by George S. Randall, Printed by Vining Press New Bedford Mass. 1924 Now out of print.

This excellent work written a generation or more ago is almost exhaustive on the families he followed. It was a constant reference for us, although our work is on two brothers of Thomas, Joseph and Philip. No doubt our work may have some errors of allocation. Randall has very few such or actual errors. By canvassing all the census reports of New England and New York, we have discovered a few additional children for Randall's families: 330 Restcome had two more daughters Eunice S. and Lucy Hnn, each by a different wife; 163 Edward in 1800 had 5 girls but only one is given, Mary. He had also a Rhoda named for his wife; these notes re Randall's work are mainly supplements, not corrections. Possibly we may issue a third volume "Taber miscellanies" including a Supplement to Thomas (2) families. We often encountered records about girls or boys unstarred. We have also some outlines on Ky., Tenn., Va., N.C. and other southern Tabers

Unplaced Tabors or Tabers

There are individuals or families not located in Randall's (Thomas 2) or our Joseph 2 and Philip 2 genealogies. There was an Elisha Taber who married Susanna Sharp in in Barrington Rhode Island in 1743, who has aroused our curiosity. In the R.I. Revolutionary records is a Waliski Tabor which we interpret as W. Elisha. Were Elisha and S. Sharpe related to the John and Elizabeth Sharpe Taber of N.C., they having son William b. 1761?

1. From Vital Records of Mass., Arnold's R.I. + Conn. V.R. R.I. Town Records after 1850 from N.Y. State Census reports 1825-1905) and principally National Archives (Census 1790-1860 for New England, New York and selected counties from Penn. to Nebraska we have accumulated 125 unplaced Tabors, Tabers, e.g. there are 8 such John Tabers, At least 50 or more of these come from census reports of families that "went west" — Ohio to Nebraska and Colorado.

2 N.C. puzzles John of Orange and Rockingham Cos. N.C., progenitor of non-coastal N.C. Tabers had descendants sprayed to Tenn., Ky. S.C., Ala., Miss., La. and Texas. We now incline to his progenitor as the early Coastal, Virginian William.

---

3. Shenandoah + Tazewell Tabers. Randall began a few notes on them (see N.B. Sib.) We have canvassed most of the census records but as yet no connection with coastal Virginian Willia or N.E. Philip has appeared.

4. Ky. families Most of them from Va. Possibly a Philip + Pardon from Philip line of N.J.

We have many notes and welcome correspondence on any of the above. Address A.H. Wright or Mrs. Anna A. Wright 113 E. Upland Rd. Ithaca, N.Y.

Index

Tabor, Taber

The index of Part I is given in pages; that of Part II is by number of the write-up of the individual. The wife has number of the husband; the daughters have number of father with capital letter to indicate order of birth such as 142 A; 142 B. When a female line is followed for several generations, the reader must start with the Tabor connection: thus Hamiltons of 10th & 11th generations must be sought under 94 B Humphrey (5) and his dau. Lucinda. A small ~~number~~ letter after the number as 76 a indicates insertion of an afterthought into the series. When surname of wife of a Tabor is known, it is given under her proper surname. If her surname is unknown, and she be wife of a Tabor, she will be found under the Tabors under her Christian given name in alphabetical, numerical order thus: 338 Abigail — is wife of No. 338.
